

IN YOUR COMMUNITY

PUBLIC NOTICE

APPOINTMENTS TO AGRICULTURAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The City of West Kelowna is now accepting applications to fill five to seven at large positions on the Agricultural Advisory Committee (AAC) for a four year term ending Dec. 31, 2024.

The AAC advises Council on land use and economic development matters relating to agriculture and agri-business and acts as a liaison between Council and the agri-business community. Citizens who are interested in volunteering to sit on the AAC may read the Committee's mandate, criteria and meeting procedures and complete an application form via the City's website at westkelownacity.ca/councilcommittees. Forms may also be picked up at Municipal Hall. For more information on the AAC, contact the Development Services Department at 778-797-8830.

In order to be considered, completed applications must be received by the Legislative Services Department before 4:30 p.m., Friday, Dec. 11, 2020, in person at Municipal Hall, by email at info@westkelownacity.ca, by fax at 778-797-1001, or by mail to 2760 Cameron Road, West Kelowna, BC, V1Z 2T6.